Pt VI, Line 11b: The organization emails a copy of the 990 to the Board prior to filing.

Pt XI: Rounding

Pt VI, Line 12c: Step By Step staff should operate free from any conflicts of interest that may affect their work for the organization. Step By Step positions should not be used for personal gain or advantage. Business transactions between Step By Step and staff members or entities related to staff members are prohibited unless the following conditions are met: 1. The transaction is determined by all parties involved to be in the best interest of Step By Step. 2. Evidence shows that the transaction is fair to Step By Step. If requested by the board of directors, a competitive bid or comparable valuation should be obtained. 3. A transaction of greater than $2,500 is approved by Step By Step's full board.

4. The transaction is fully disclosed in the financial statements. 5. The related party is excluded from the discussion and approval of the transaction. Staff and Board should annually sign a Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form. Step By Step staff may serve other causes while serving Step By Step, but should consider the potential for conflict before assisting an organization with principles divergent from those of this Christian establishment. Material that belongs to Step By Step may not be used by staff for personal benefit. Unless an individual agreement is reached, any material produced while working on behalf of Step By Step is the property of the organization. Staff members should not function as representatives for Step By Step when their personal interest may conflict with the interest of the organization. Staff members' acceptance of gifts (unless of minimal value) from outside parties should be discussed with the Executive Director if the value of the gift exceeds $25. Personal relationships beyond a mentor/client relationship between Step By Step staff members or volunteers and clients or those related to clients are strictly prohibited, as they pose a significant conflict of interest for the staff involved. If this situation occurs, the staff member or volunteer concerned should immediately discontinue services to the client, explaining the potential for unnecessary conflict. Services for the client will be transferred to a different staff member or volunteer without conflict.

Other: Document Retention and Destruction Policy: It is the policy of Step By Step to retain records as required by law and to destroy them when appropriate according to the following Records Retention Schedule. This policy ensures that necessary records and documents are adequately protected and maintained and ensures that records that are no longer needed or are of no value are discarded at the proper time. In addition, this policy aids employees in understanding their obligations in retaining electronic documents including email, web files, text files, sound and movie files, PDF documents, and all Microsoft Office or other formatted files. The Director of Operations (DOO) is the individual in charge of the administration of this policy and the implementation of processes and procedures to ensure that the Record Retention Schedule is followed. This individual is also authorized to: make modifications to the Record Retention Schedule to ensure that it is in compliance with local, state, and federal laws and includes the appropriate document and record categories for SBS; monitor local, state, and federal laws affecting record retention; annually review the record retention and disposal program; and monitor compliance with this policy.

In the event Step By Step is served with any subpoena or request for documents or any employee becomes aware of a governmental investigation or audit concerning Step By Step or the commencement of any litigation against or concerning Step By Step, the employee will inform the DOO and any further disposal of documents
